SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of life. The Court will review this term of supervised release after the defendant has served five (5) years to determine if any modifications should be made.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution, it is a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

The defendant must comply with standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.
3. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
4. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
5. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
6. The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
7. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
8. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
9. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
10. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
12. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
13. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, pursuant to the Public Law 108-405 (Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004), if such sample was not collected during imprisonment.
2. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583 (d), the defendant shall submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release on supervised release and at least two (2) periodic drug tests thereafter to determine whether the defendant is using a controlled substance. Further, the defendant shall submit to such testing as requested by any probation officer to detect the presence of alcohol or controlled substances in the defendant's body fluids and to determine whether the defendant has used any of those substances. Based on the defendant's ability to pay, the defendant shall pay for the collection of urine samples to be tested for the presence of alcohol and/or controlled substances in an amount to be determined by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer with truthful and complete information regarding all computer hardware, software, electronic services, and data storage media to which the defendant has access.
4. The defendant shall cooperate with the U.S. Probation Office's Computer Monitoring Program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices the defendant has access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices. The defendant and/or the U.S. Probation Officer shall inform all parties that access a monitored computer, or similar electronic device, that the device is subject to monitoring. The defendant may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet capable device, to facilitate the probation officer's ability to effectively monitor his/her Internet related activities, including, but not limited to, email correspondence, Internet usage history, and chat conversations. The defendant shall not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent installed software. The defendant shall also permit random examinations of said computer systems, Internet capable devices, and similar electronic devices, and related computer peripherals, such as CD's and other media, under his/her control. The defendant shall pay the costs of monitoring.
5. The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, property, office, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer at any time; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises and any shared devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
6. The defendant shall not use or have installed any programs specifically and solely designed to encrypt data, files, folders, or volumes on any media. Also, the defendant shall not install or use any program for the purpose of "wiping," deleting or cleaning any media device.
7. The defendant shall have no contact, nor reside with children under the age of 18 unless approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Officer in consultation with the treatment providers. The defendant must report all incidental contact with children to the U.S. Probation Officer and the treatment provider. Should the defendant have incidental contact with a child, the defendant is required to immediately remove him/herself from the situation and notify his/her U.S. Probation Officer within 24 hours of this contact.

8. The defendant shall not loiter within 500 feet of schools, school yards, parks, arcades, playgrounds, amusement parks, or other places used primarily by children under the age of 18 unless approved in advance by the U.S. Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall not associate with or have any contact with convicted sex offenders unless in a therapeutic setting and with the permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.
10. The defendant is restricted from engaging in any occupation, business, or profession, including volunteer work, where he/she has access to children under the age of 18, without prior approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. Acceptable employment shall include a stable verifiable work location and the probation officer must be granted access to your work site.
11. The defendant shall have all residences and employment pre approved by the U.S. Probation Officer ten (10) days prior to moving or changing employment. The defendant must comply with any residency restriction ordinances in the city where he/she resides.
12. The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer, or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed upon him/her unless excused by the U.S. Probation Officer.
13. The defendant shall comply with Sexual Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA) requirements for convicted offenders in any state in which the defendant resides, is employed, or is a student, as required by federal and state law. While on supervision with the District of Nebraska, the defendant shall register in person with local, tribal, or county law enforcement at a location designated by the Nebraska State Patrol within three (3) days of sentencing, or if in custody at the time of sentencing, within three (3) days of release from incarceration. While on supervision any changes to information provided during the initial registration must be made no less than three (3) business days before the change occurs. The defendant shall provide proof of registration and changes to the U.S. Probation Officer.
14. The defendant shall undergo a sex offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment programs(s), including submissions to therapeutic polygraph testing. The defendant shall sign releases of information to allow all professionals involved in their treatment and monitoring to communicate and share documentation. The defendant shall pay for these services as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.
15. The defendant shall be required to submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation office as a means to ensure that he or she is in compliance with the requirements of his or her supervision or treatment program.
16. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
17. The defendant shall participate in a victim awareness program as directed by the probation officer. Based on the defendant's ability to pay, the defendant shall pay for the costs of the program in an amount determined by the probation officer.
18. The defendant shall report to the Supervision Unit of the U.S. Probation Office for the District of Nebraska between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., 111 South 18th Plaza,

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

The defendant shall pay the special assessment in the amount of $100.00 immediately. If not paid, the defendant shall pay 25% of his prison earnings or other funds which become available to him toward payment of the special assessment. This amount shall be deducted from the defendant's prison earnings or other funds available to defendant during his incarceration. Any remaining unpaid balance of the special assessment shall be paid within fifteen (15) days of defendant's release.

The criminal monetary penalty is due in full on the date of the judgment. The defendant is obligated to pay said sum immediately if he or she has the capacity to do so. The United States of America may institute civil collection proceedings at any time to satisfy all or any portion of the criminal monetary penalty.

Without limiting the foregoing, and during the defendant's term of incarceration, the defendant shall participate in the Bureau of Prisons' Financial Inmate Responsibility Program. Using such Program, the defendant shall pay 50% of the available inmate institutional funds per quarter towards the criminal monetary penalty.

Without limiting the foregoing, and following release from prison, the defendant shall make payments to satisfy the criminal monetary penalty in the following manner: (a) monthly installments of $100 or 3% of the defendant's gross income, whichever is greater; (b) the first payment shall commence 30 days following the defendant's discharge from incarceration, and continue until the criminal monetary penalty is paid in full; and (c) the defendant shall be responsible for providing proof of payment to the probation officer as directed.

Any payments made on the outstanding criminal monetary penalty shall be applied in the following order of priority: special assessment; restitution; fine; and other penalties. Unless otherwise specifically ordered, all criminal monetary penalty payments, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, shall be made to the clerk of the Court. Unless otherwise specifically ordered, interest shall not accrue on the criminal monetary penalty.

All financial penalty payments are to be made to the Clerk of Court for the District of Nebraska, 111 S. 18th Plaza, Suite 1152, Omaha, NE 68102-1322.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

The defendant shall inform the probation officer of any change in his or her economic circumstances affecting the ability to make monthly installments, or increase the monthly payment amount, as ordered by the court.

The defendant is restrained from transferring any real or personal property, unless it is necessary to liquidate and apply the proceeds of such property as full or partial payment of the criminal monetary penalty.
